

Getting Wiser

AGING WELL IN SUMMIT COUNTY

Summit County by the numbers

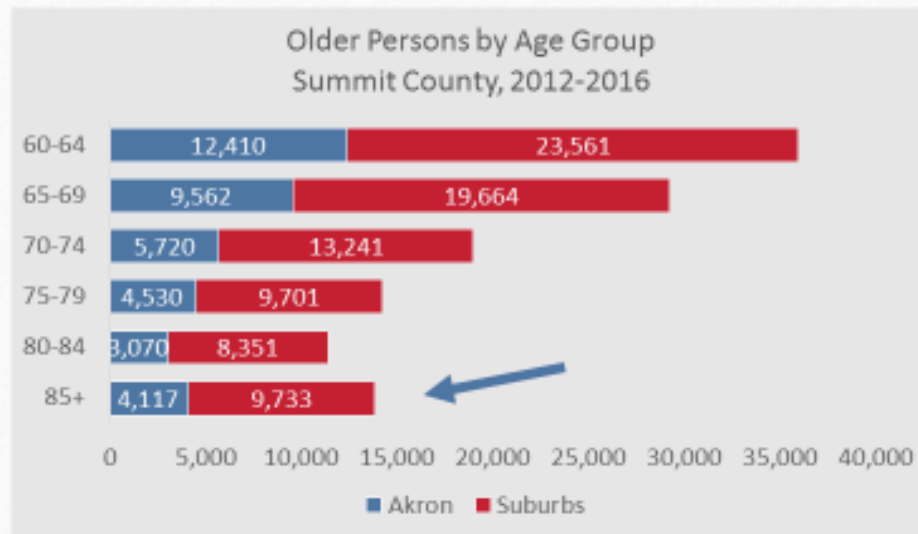

Who are we talking about?

2016

123,660 Adults Age
60+ In Summit
County

2030

150,000 Adults Age
60+
Projected for Summit
County

Possibly add first bullet: 50% of older adults will need long term services and supports at some point

e

50% of Summit County Residents said they would not plan for getting older/finding services or would do so during a crisis

95% of people surveyed think Medicare would pay for long term services and supports

You can age well by Getting Wiser...

Changed language in notes for homewise. Also suggest reviewing in order that they are listed.

Wiser depends on how well you

Find help with managing your health, including disease management, fitness, nutrition, meal planning and more.

Stay where you want to call home. Get the assistance you need, in the comfort of your own home.

Explore money management tools, avoiding fraud and scams, available financial assistance, and state and federal benefits.

Consider volunteering and donating to the programs that help our seniors.

You have errands and appointments. We'll help you find a ride.

Not sure where to start? We're here to help!

Getting wiser depends on understanding services and supports

Many will need some type of long term service and support

- Bathing
- Dressing
- Homemaking
- Meals
- Emergency response systems
- Home modifications

Need Help Now?

Schedule a free in-person assessment by calling Direction Home Aging and Disabilities.

Call 1-800-421-7277

Available services:

- Bathing
- Dressing
- Homemaking
- Meals
- Emergency response systems
- Home modifications

For help finding other services for seniors call United Way of Summit County 2-1-1

Call 2-1-1 or 330-376-6660

Available services:

- Senior centers
- Legal assistance
- Tax preparation
- Preventive health programs
- Employment and volunteering
- Senior housing
- And many other services!

What else can you do?

Sign up for updates from Getting Wiser

Talk to your doctor about ways to stay healthy

Begin planning

Pledge to support Getting Wiser in Summit County

Summit Senior Coalition

County of Summit · The High Point of Ohio

